Cats spring a big surprise

★ NOT knowing which way the cat jumps gave BBC producers Michael Lumley and his camera team a tough time when they went to the National Cat Club Championship at Olympia, London. They wanted to film the felines for PRIZE CATS (BBC-2, 6.50) but discovered that the animals just don't care about having their pictures taken.

"They wouldn't stay still," said Lumley. "It took us ten minutes of film tape to get one shot of a cat." Vet Nick Henderson and Carol Chell introduce the cats.
